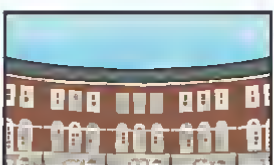
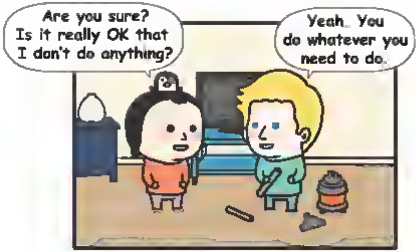
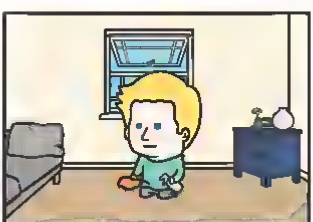
Contradiction



One weekend afternoon,
Mev cleaned our home.

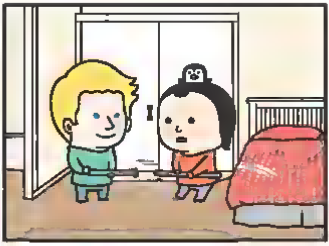




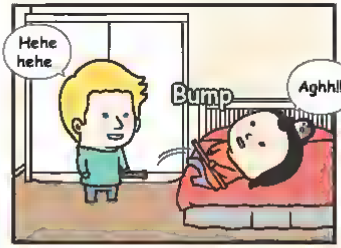
Without me, he did it all by himself

Then he asked me to help him detoch the vacuum tubes.

So we worked together, then...



The pipes were already lose



That was Mev's trick.

Anyway I went back to my seat to carry on with my work

Mev came to me again,
it seemed like he had really finished
all his cleaning

It was a little bit annoying but...

.... I walked around the rooms with him and gave him praise for his hard work.

Then Mev started to play with me again.

So, finally. .

I attacked him back with my elbow

But it doesn't hurt.
Donk

I'm saying, don't do it to yourself too
Boing

Donk-

What's wrong with you?
Boing

Donk

I don't like that you get hurt!
Boing

What a contradiction!

My belly hurts.
